Anyone who asks for this volume, to read, collate, or copy from it, and who appropriates it to himself or herself, or cuts anything out of it, should realize that (s)he will have to give answer before God's awesome tribunal as if (s)he had robbed a sanctuary. Let such a person be held anathema and receive no forgiveness until the book is returned. So be it, Amen! And anyone who removes these anathemas, digitally or otherwise, shall himself receive them in double.

INTRODUCTION

The OIRSI is indeed happy to publish in its series this book prepared by prof. Dr. John Madey. Though relatively small in its size it is rich in the materials of information which it provides.

As we are drawing near to the dawn of the third millennium the churches are becoming increasingly aware of the need of reconciliation and ecumenical collaboration. The prayer of the Lord that "all may be one" should never fail to raise an echo in the heart of every Christian.

It is a directory of the hierarchy of the Churches of the Syriac tradition. The Syriac Churches are legitimate heirs of early Christian heritage. Historians and theologians would categorize the early Christian tradition into Syriac Orient, Greek East and Latin West. Among these the Syriac Orient is of unique importance because of its closest association with the Biblical world.

The Thomas Christians of India are intimately associated with the Syriac Churches and their heritage. All the Churches founded by the Apostle St. Thomas follow Syriac liturgical tradition. The Jewish presence along the south western coast of Malabar for the trade of spices from the tenth century B.C., paved the way for the arrival of the Apostle St. Thomas in India. The origin and growth of the Syriac Churches in the East, outside the Graeco-Roman world, helped them to preserve their venerable heritage and develop their own ecclesial identity and individuality. Because of the various vicissitudes of history these Churches too happened to be divided. Let us pray and hope that this ecumenical directory would be helpful to promote mutual contacts, understanding and reconciliation among the Syriac Churches. It is my pleasant duty to congratulate prof. Dr. John Madey, an eminent ecumenist of international fame, for having taken pains to prepare this useful Directory.
